

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE USE OF BAIL SCHEDULE

The bail schedule contains a list of felony, misdemeanor and infraction violations. This schedule is divided into three sections. The three sections of the bail schedule consist of the following:

- Felony Enhancements, including Priors
- Felony Charges, and
- Combined Misdemeanor and Infractions

The schedule is divided into several columns. The explanation for each column follows:

CHARGE CODE AND SECTION

This column shows the California statute code and the section number.

CRIME CLASS

M= Misdemeanor and I = Infraction

VAR

This is the variation of the charge and allows the court to set a different bail for the same charge based upon different circumstances.

DESCRIPTION

This is the English language description of the crime.

BAIL

The amount of bail that is required before the defendant may be released from custody.

P/C

Some violations are deemed to be correctable. Where proof of correction may decrease the bail, that amount is shown. "NAP" means that proof of correction is not applicable.

DIV

This is the court division where the case is filed. "C"= Criminal Division "T"=Traffic Division.

MAN APP

This field shows whether the defendant is required to appear in court. “Y” (yes) means appearance is required. “N” (NO) means that bail may be posted and forfeited in lieu of appearance.

RULE: If any one violation is a mandatory appearance, the whole case is a mandatory appearance.

ONLY if all violations are not mandatory appearance can bail be posted and forfeited in lieu of appearing.

PENALTY ASSESSMENTS

Penalty assessments, where applicable, are included in the bail amounts shown. The penalty assessment is $24.00 for each $10.00 of bail (or fine).
