Summary of Court Services Affected by Staff Furloughs Beginning October 7, 2011

Responding to the deepening statewide financial crisis, the San Luis Obispo Superior Court regrets to announce that it will substantially reduce its operations and furlough employees every Friday, beginning October 7, 2011 until further notice. However, all courthouses will be open to provide essential services for the public.

- Please visit the Court's Web site, www.slocourts.net, to handle traffic tickets, to make inquiries regarding jury service, to perform other transactions or to obtain more detailed information about the impacts to court operations.
- A limited number of courtrooms will be available to handle statutorily mandated hearings and criminal matters, including domestic violence, elder abuse and civil harassment restraining orders involving stalking and/or threats of domestic violence.
- Lines on Fridays are expected to be long; clerk's offices will be open with limited services. Telephone inquiries will not be available on Fridays.
- Attorney windows will be closed on Fridays.
