Re: Motion to Deem Requests for Admissions Admitted CCP §2033.280

Date: July 11, 2017

This is a collection action for approximately $1,264 owed on a credit card debt. The Plaintiff propounded requests for admission and Defendant did not respond. No opposition to this motion has been filed and the motion was properly and timely served. The failure to oppose is treated as an admission that the motion is meritorious. See Weil & Brown, Civil Procedure Before Trial (TRG 2017) §9:105.10. Accordingly the motion is granted as prayed. No sanctions are requested.
