Petition for Dismissal Penal Code Section 1203.4

What can a Petition to Dismiss do for you?

Allow you to answer “no” if a potential employer asks if you have ever been convicted of a crime unless it is for government employment or a government licensing board. Under most circumstances, private employers cannot ask you about any convictions dismissed under Penal Code section 1203.4. So, when applying for a job in the private sector, you generally do not have to disclose a conviction if it was dismissed or expunged. But it is a good idea to read Penal Code section 1203.4, or California Code of Regulations section 11017.1, or to contact an attorney if you have questions about your rights and obligations regarding past convictions when applying for a job.

The granting of the dismissal will not:

1. Allow you to omit the conviction from a questionnaire or application for; public office, for licensure by any state or local agency, government employment, or for contracting with the California State Lottery Commission. If applying for or filling out a questionnaire for any of the above items and you are asked if you have ever been convicted of a crime, you MUST respond with “YES—CONVICTION DISMISSED.”
2. Remove the conviction from your "Rap Sheet" - California and FBI criminal history records will still show the conviction and the Penal Code 1203.4 dismissal.
3. Destroy, wipe out, strike, seal or otherwise remove the court case file from public inspection.
4. Allow you to possess a firearm if you have been denied such a right due to the conviction.
5. Prevent the conviction from being used by INS for removal and exclusion purposes.
6. Remove the requirement to register as a sex offender per PC290.
7. Allow you to hold public office. If your conviction prohibited you from holding public office, you still cannot hold public office after that conviction is dismissed.
8. Prevent the conviction from being used as a "prior" or "strike prior" to increase punishment on a subsequent conviction.
9. Reinstate you're driving privileges.

4. The court DENIES the petition for dismissal under Penal Code (check all that apply) § 1203.4 § 1203.4a § 1203.41 § 1203.42 § 1203.43 § 1203.49 for (check one)
a. ALL CONVICTIONS OR PLEAS FOR DEFERRED ENTRY OF JUDGMENT in the above-entitled action.
b. only the following convictions or pleas for deferred entry of judgment in the above-entitled action (specify charges and date of conviction or plea for deferred entry of judgment):
5. In granting this order under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.49, the court finds that the petitioner was a victim of human trafficking when he or she committed the crime. The court orders (check one)
a. the relief described in section 1203.4.
b. the relief described in section 1203.4, with the following exceptions (specify):
6. If the order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.49, the Department of Justice is hereby notified that petitioner was a victim of human trafficking when he or she committed the crime, and of the relief ordered.
7. If this order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.41 or 1203.42,
a. The petitioner is required to disclose the above conviction in response to any direct question contained in any questionnaire or application for public office, or for licensure by any state or local agency, or for contracting with the California State Lottery Commission; and
b. Dismissal of the conviction does not automatically relieve petitioner from the requirement to register as a sex offender. (See, e.g., Pen. Code, § 290.5.)
8. If the order is granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.4, 1203.4a, 1203.41, 1203.42, or 1203.49, the petitioner is released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offense except as provided in Penal Code sections 29800 and 29900 (formerly sections 12021 and 12021.1) and Vehicle Code section 13555. In any subsequent prosecution of the petitioner for any other offense, the prior conviction may be pleaded and proved and shall have the same effect as if probation had not been granted or the accusation or information dismissed. The dismissal does not permit a person to own, possess, or have in his or her control a firearm if prevented by Penal Code sections 29800 or 29900 (formerly sections 12021 and 12021.1). Dismissal of a conviction does not permit a person prohibited from holding public office as a result of that conviction to hold public office.
9. In addition, as required by Penal Code section 299(f), relief under Penal Code sections 17(b), 17(d)(2), 1203.4, 1203.4a, 1203.41, 1203.42, or 1203.49 does not release petitioner from the separate administrative duty to provide specimens, samples, or print impressions under the DNA and Forensic Identification Database and Data Bank Act (Pen. Code, § 295 et seq.) if petitioner was found guilty by a trier of fact, not guilty by reason of insanity, or pled no contest to a qualifying offense as defined in Penal Code section 296(a).
10. The basis for an order of dismissal granted under the provisions of Penal Code section 1203.43 is the invalidity of defendant's prior plea due to misinformation in former Penal Code section 1000.4 regarding the actual consequences of making a plea and successful completion of a deferred entry of judgment program.
